

Easter Letter & Worship Schedule from our Pastor
The Rev. Dr. Anthony T. Padovano

Easter 2005

Dear Friends,

It was memory and hope that brought the disciples together time and time again to celebrate Easter. They encountered in their Communion Service, the memory of Jesus lost on the cross, and the hope of Christ risen from the tomb.

As we prepare to celebrate these awful and awesome events once more, we invite you to join us.

Be with us through Palm Sun and the Last Supper, at the cross and near the tomb, and on Easter Sunday morning. Be with us as we celebrate a week of grandeur and grief and grace.

Be with us with your presence and your prayers, with your gifts and your memories of us, with your hopes for us and your love.

This Easter Sunday we remember you as we gather together. Our hope in Christ makes us know we shall never finally lose one another.

Happy Easter! Alleluia!

Anthony
